

Evaluation Argument — Peer Review

- I. Read the draft from beginning to end. As you read, proof read. Mark any problems you notice with grammar, spelling, punctuation, or MLA format.
- II. Write out your peer review on the reverse side of the essay's final page. At the top of the page place the author's name and your own name as shown:

Author: _____ Reviewer: _____

A. Respond briefly to each of the following questions:

1. Title & Introduction: Does the title pique your interest? Does the introduction set up the subject for evaluation?
2. Thesis: Underline the thesis statement. Does it forecast the essay's structure? Does it clearly present the all the evaluative criteria?
3. Structure: Underline the first sentence of each paragraph. Do the topic sentences match the thesis? Does each paragraph stay focused on its topic?
4. Criteria: How fitting and persuasive are the criteria for evaluation? How could the essay defend the criteria more clearly or persuasively?
5. Match: How does the essay support and develop its match argument? What evidence helps readers see how each criterion matches or fails to match?
6. Sources: Does the essay use both primary and secondary sources? Are the in-text citations and Works Cited page properly formatted?

B. Make at least TWO specific suggestions for revision.
